1.4 Policy Statement

The European Tang Soo Do Federation is committed to the following:

- the welfare of the child is paramount
- all children, whatever their age, culture, ability, gender, language, racial origin, religious belief and/or sexual identity should be able to participate in the practice of Tang Soo Do in a fun and safe environment
- taking all reasonable steps to protect children from harm, discrimination and degrading treatment and to respect their rights, wishes and feelings
- all suspicions and allegations of poor practice or abuse will be taken seriously and responded to swiftly and appropriately
- all (Organisation/Club) instructors / black belts who teach children will be given the right to teach with regard to their suitability for that responsibility and will be provided with guidance and/or training in good practice and child protection procedures adopted and implemented by the ETSDF.
- working in partnership with parents and children is essential for the protection of children

2 Monitor and review the policy and procedures

The implementation of procedures should be regularly monitored and reviewed. The child protection officer within the ETSDF should regularly report progress, challenges, difficulties, achievements gaps and areas where changes are required to the committee members.

The policy should be reviewed every 3 years or whenever there is a major change in the organisation or in relevant local legislations.

3 Promoting Good Practice

To provide children with the best possible experience and opportunities in Tang Soo Do everyone must operate within an accepted ethical framework such as The instructors Code of Conduct.

It is not always easy to distinguish poor practice from abuse. It is therefore NOT the responsibility of the instructors / black belts to make judgements about whether or not abuse is taking place. It is however their responsibility to identify poor practice and possible abuse and act if they have concerns about the welfare of the child, as explained in section 4.

This section will help you identify what is meant by good practice and poor practice.

4 Good Practice

All personnel should adhere to the following principles and action:

- always work in an open environment (e.g. avoiding private or unobserved situations and encouraging open communication with no secrets)
- make the experience of Tang Soo Do fun and enjoyable: promote fairness, confront and deal with bullying
- treat all young people equally and with respect and dignity
- always put the welfare of the young person first, before winning
- maintain a safe and appropriate distance with students (e.g. it is not appropriate for staff or volunteers to have an intimate relationship with a child or to share a room with them)
- Avoid unnecessary physical contact with young people. Where any form of manual/physical support is required it should be provided openly and with the consent of the young person.

Physical contact can be appropriate so long as it is neither intrusive nor disturbing and the young person's consent has been given

- Involve parents/cares wherever possible, e.g. where young people need to be supervised in changing rooms, encourage parents to take responsibility for their own child. If groups have to be supervised in changing rooms always ensure parents, instructors etc work in pairs
- request written parental consent if club officials are required to transport young people in their cars
- gain written parental consent for any significant travel arrangements e.g. overnight stays
- ensure that if mixed teams are taken away, they should always be accompanied by a male and female member instructor
- ensure that at away events adults should not enter a young person's room or invite young people to their rooms
- be an excellent role model, this includes not smoking in the company of young people
- always give enthusiastic and constructive feedback rather than negative criticism
- Recognising the developmental needs and capacity of the young person and do not risk sacrificing welfare in a desire for club or personal achievements. This means avoiding excessive training or competition and not pushing them against their will
- secure written parental consent for the club to act in loco parentis, to give permission for the administration of emergency first aid or other medical treatment if the need arises
- always carry student records to away events
- keep a written record of any injury that occurs, along with details of any treatment given

5 Poor Practice

The following are regarded as poor practice and should be avoided by all personnel:

- unnecessarily spending excessive amounts of time alone with young people away from others
- taking young people alone in a car on journeys, however short
- taking young people to your home where they will be alone with you
- sharing a room with a young person
- engaging in rough, physical or sexually provocative games, including horseplay

Child Protection Policy

- allow or engage in inappropriate touching of any form
- allowing young people to use inappropriate language unchallenged
- making sexually suggestive comments to a young person, even in fun
- reducing a young person to tears as a form of control
- allow allegations made by a young person to go unchallenged, unrecorded or not acted upon
- do things of a personal nature that the young person can do for themselves

When a case arises where it is impractical/impossible to avoid certain situation e.g. transporting a young person on your car, the tasks should only be carried out with the full understanding and consent of the parent/care and the young person involved.

If during your care you accidentally hurt a young person, the young person seems distressed in any manner, appears to be sexually aroused by your actions and/or if the young person misunderstands or misinterprets something you have done, report any such incidents as soon as possible to another instructor and make a written note of it. Parents should also be informed of the incident. Also inform the chief instructor.

6 Defining Child Abuse

Child abuse is any form of physical, emotional or sexual mistreatment or lack of care that leads to injury or harm, it commonly occurs within a relationship of trust or responsibility and is an abuse of power or a breach of trust. Abuse can happen to a young person regardless of their age, gender, race or ability.

There are four main types of abuse: physical abuse, sexual abuse, emotional abuse and neglect. The abuser may be a family member, someone the young person encounters in residential care or in the community, including sports and leisure activities. Any individual may abuse or neglect a young person directly, or may be responsible for abuse because they fail to prevent another person harming the young person.

Abuse in all of its forms can affect a young person at any age. The effects can be so damaging that if not treated may follow the individual into adulthood

Young people with disabilities may be at increased risk of abuse through various factors such as stereotyping, prejudice, discrimination, isolation and a powerlessness to protect themselves or adequately communicate that abuse had occurred.

7 Types of Abuse

- Physical Abuse: where adults physically hurt or injure a young person e.g. hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning, biting, scalding, suffocating, drowning. Giving young people alcohol or inappropriate drugs would also constitute child abuse. This category of abuse can also include when a parent/carer reports non-existent symptoms or illness deliberately causes ill health in a young person they are looking after. This is call Munchausen's syndrome by proxy. In a martial art situation, physical abuse may occur when the nature and intensity of training disregard the capacity of the child's immature and growing body
- Emotional Abuse: the persistent emotional ill treatment of a young person, likely to cause severe and lasting adverse effects on the child's emotional development. It may involve telling a young person they are useless, worthless, unloved, inadequate or valued in terms of only meeting the needs of another person. It may feature expectations of young people that are not appropriate to their age or development. It may cause a young person to be frightened or in danger by being constantly shouted at, threatened or taunted which may make the young person frightened or withdrawn. Ill treatment of children, whatever form it takes, will always feature a degree of emotional abuse.
Emotional abuse in sport may occur when the young person is constant criticised, given negative feedback, expected to perform at levels that are above their capability. Other forms of emotional abuse could take the form of name calling and bullying.

Bullying may come from another young person or an adult. Bullying is defined as deliberate hurtful behavior, usually repeated over a period of time, where it is difficult for those bullied to defend themselves. There are three main types of bullying.

It may be physical (e.g. hitting, kicking, slapping), verbal (e.g. racist or homophobic remarks, name calling, graffiti, threats, abusive text messages), emotional (e.g. tormenting, ridiculing, humiliating, ignoring, isolating from the group), or sexual (e.g. unwanted physical contact or abusive comments).

In sport bullying may arise when a parent or coach pushes the young person too hard to succeed, or a rival athlete or official uses bullying behavior.

Neglect occurs when an adult fails to meet the young person's basic physical and/or psychological needs, to an extent that is likely to result in serious impairment of the child's health or development. For example, failing to provide adequate food, shelter and clothing, failing to protect from physical harm or danger, or failing to ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment. Refusal to give love, affection and attention can also be a form of neglect. Neglect in TSD could occur when an instructor or black belt does not keep the young person safe, or exposing them to undue cold/heat or unnecessary risk of injury.

- Sexual Abuse occurs when adults (male and female) use children to meet their own sexual needs. This could include full sexual intercourse, masturbation, oral sex, anal intercourse and fondling. Showing young people pornography or talking to them in a sexually explicit manner are also forms of sexual abuse. In martial arts, activities which might involve physical contact with young people could potentially create situations where sexual abuse may go unnoticed. Also the power of the coach over young athletes, if misused, may lead to abusive situations developing.

8 Indicators of Abuse

Even for those experienced in working with child abuse, it is not always easy to recognise a situation where abuse may occur or has already taken place. Most people are not experts in such recognition, but indications that a child is being abused may include one or more of the following:

Child Protection Policy

European Tang Soo Do Federation

Ref No: ETSDP-2

Rev No: 1

Date:03/07/2020

- unexplained or suspicious injuries such as bruising, cuts or burns, particularly if situated on a part of the body not normally prone to such injuries
- an injury for which an explanation seems inconsistent
- the young person describes what appears to be an abusive act involving them
- another young person or adult expresses concern about the welfare of a young person
- unexplained changes in a young person's behavior e.g. becoming very upset, quiet, withdrawn or displaying sudden outbursts of temper
- inappropriate sexual awareness
- engaging in sexually explicit behaviour
- distrust of adult's, particularly those whom a close relationship would normally be expected
- difficulty in making friends
- being prevented from socialising with others
- displaying variations in eating patterns including over eating or loss of appetite
- losing weight for no apparent reason
- becoming increasingly dirty or unkempt

Signs of bullying include:

- behavioural changes such as reduced concentration and/or becoming withdrawn, clingy, depressed, tearful, emotionally up and down, reluctance to go training or competitions
- an unexplained drop off in performance
- physical signs such as stomach aches, headaches, difficulty in sleeping, bed wetting, scratching and bruising, damaged clothes, bingeing e.g. on food, alcohol or cigarettes
- a shortage of money or frequents loss of possessions

It must be recognised that the above list is not exhaustive, but also that the presence of one or more of the indications is not proof that abuse is taking place. It is NOT the responsibility of those instructing within the ETSDF to decide that child abuse is occurring. It IS their responsibility to act on any concerns.

9 Use of Photographic/Filming Equipment at Tang Soo Do Events

Child Protection Policy

There is evidence that some people have used sporting events as an opportunity to take inappropriate photographs or film footage of young people. All ETSDF clubs should be vigilant and any concerns should be reported to the Child protection officer within the ETSDF Committee.

All parents and performers should be made aware when instructors use video equipment as a way to help instructing that child.

10 Responding to Suspicions and Allegations

It is not the responsibility of anyone instructing in the ETSDF to decide whether or not child abuse has taken place. However there is a responsibility to act on any concerns through contact with the appropriate authorities so that they can then make inquiries and take necessary action to protect the young person. This applies BOTH to allegations/suspicions of abuse occurring within the ETSDF and to allegations/suspicions that abuse is taking place elsewhere.

This section explains how to respond to allegations/suspicions.

11 Receiving Evidence of Possible Abuse

We may become aware of possible abuse in various ways. We may see it happening, we may suspect it happening because of signs such as those listed in section 3 of this document, it may be reported to us by someone else or directly by the young person affected.

In the last of these cases, it is particularly important to respond appropriately. If a young person says or indicates that they are being abused, you should:

Child Protection Policy

European Tang Soo Do Federation

Ref No: ETSDP-2

Rev No: 1

Date:03/07/2020

- stay calm so as not to frighten the young person
- reassure the child that they are not to blame and that it was right to tell
- listen to the child, showing that you are taking them seriously
- keep questions to a minimum so that there is a clear and accurate understanding of what has been said. The law is very strict and child abuse cases have been dismissed where it is felt that the child has been led or words and ideas have been suggested during questioning. Only ask questions to clarify
- inform the child that you have to inform other people about what they have told you. Tell the child this is to help stop the abuse continuing.
- safety of the child is paramount. If the child needs urgent medical attention call an ambulance, inform the doctors of the concern and ensure they are made aware that this is a child protection issue, ensure that student forms are handed over.
- record all information
- report the incident to the ETSDP child protection officer.

12 Recording Information

To ensure that information is as helpful as possible, a detailed record should always be made at the time of the disclosure/concern. In recording you should confine yourself to the facts and distinguish what is your personal knowledge and what others have told you. Do not include your own opinions.

Information should include the following:

- the child's name, age and date of birth
- the child's home address and telephone number
- whether or not the person making the report is expressing their concern or someone else's
- the nature of the allegation, including dates, times and any other relevant information
- a description of any visible bruising or injury, location, size etc. Also any indirect signs, such as behavioural changes
- details of witnesses to the incidents

Child Protection Policy

European Tang Soo Do Federation

Rev No: 1

- the child's account, if it can be given, of what has happened and how any bruising/injuries occurred
- have the parents been contacted? If so what has been said?
- has anyone else been consulted? If so record details
- has anyone been alleged to be the abuser? Record details

13 Reporting the Concern

All suspicions and allegations MUST be reported appropriately. It is recognised that strong emotions can be aroused particularly in cases where sexual abuse is suspected or where there is misplaced loyalty to a colleague. It is important to understand these feelings but not allow them to interfere with your judgement about any action to take.

The ETSDF expects it's members and instructors to discuss any concerns they may have about the welfare of a child immediately with the person in charge and subsequently to check that appropriate action has been taken.

If the nominated club child protection officer is not available you should take responsibility and seek advice from the Child helpline (Child Helpline number 116), or the police.

A summary of reporting procedures is provided in Appendix 2. Where there is a complaint against an instructor or black belt / volunteer, there may be three types of investigation.

- Criminal in which case the police are immediately involved
- Child protection in which case the social services (and possibly) the police will be involved
- Disciplinary or misconduct in which case the ETSDF will be involved

Child Protection Policy

European Tang Soo Do Federation

Rev No: 1

As mentioned previously in this document the ETSDF are not child protection experts and it is not their responsibility to determine whether or not abuse has taken place. All suspicions and allegations must be shared with professional agencies that are responsible for child protection. (SEE APPENDIX 3 & 4)

Social services have a legal responsibility to investigate all child protection referrals by talking to the child and family (where appropriate), gathering information from other people who know the child and making inquiries jointly with the police.

NB: If there is any doubt, you must report the incident: it may be just one of a series of other incidences which together cause concern

Any suspicion that a child has been abused by an instructor, black belt or a volunteer should be reported to the ETSDF who will take appropriate steps to ensure the safety of the child in question and any other child who may be at risk. This will include the following:

- ETSDF will refer the matter to social services department
- the parent/carer of the child will be contacted as soon as possible following advice from the social services department
- the Chief instructor of the ETSDF should be notified to decide who will deal with any inquiries and implement any immediate disciplinary proceedings

Allegations of abuse are sometimes made sometime after the event. Where such allegation is made, you should follow the same procedures and have the matter reported to social services. This is because other children in the club or outside it may be at risk from the alleged abuser. Anyone who has a previous conviction for offences related to abuse against children is automatically excluded from working with children.

14 Concerns outside the immediate TSD Environment (e.g. a parent or carer)

Child Protection Policy

European Tang Soo Do Federation

Ref No: ETSDP-2

Rev No: 1

Date:03/07/2020

- Report your concerns to the Club child protection officer
- If the Club child protection officer is not available, the person being told or discovering the abuse should contact their local social services department or the police immediately
- Social Services and the Club child protection officer will decide how to inform the parents/carers
- The Club child protection officer should also report the incident to the ETSDF Committee members ASAP. The Committee should ascertain whether or not the person/s involved in the incident play a role in the organisation and act accordingly
- Maintain confidentiality on a need to know basis

15 Confidentiality

Every effort should be made to ensure that confidentiality is maintained for all concerned. Information should be handled and disseminated on a need to know basis only. This includes the following people:

- The ETSDF child protection officer
- The parents of the child
- The person making the allegation
- Social Services/police
- The ETSDF chief instructor and all committee members
- The alleged abuser (and parents if the alleged abuser is a child)

Seek social services advice on who should approach the alleged abuser.

All information should be stored in a secure place with limited access to designated people, in line with data protection laws.

16 Internal Inquiries and Suspension

Child Protection Policy

European Tang Soo Do Federation

Ref No: ETSDP-2

Rev No: 1

Date:03/07/2020

- The ETSDF child protection officer will make an immediate decision about whether any individual accused of abuse should be temporarily suspended pending further police and social services inquiries
- Irrespective of the findings of the social services or police inquiries the ETSDF Committee will assess all individual cases to decide whether an instructor, black belt or volunteer can be reinstated and how this can be sensitively handled. This may be a difficult decision; especially where there is insufficient evidence to uphold any action by the police. In such cases the ETSDF Committee must reach a decision based upon the available information which could suggest that on the balance of probability, it is more likely than not that the allegation is true. The welfare of the child should remain of paramount importance throughout.

17 Selecting Personnel / instructors with Children

It is important that all reasonable steps are taken to prevent unsuitable people from instructing children. To ensure unsuitable people are prevented from working with children the following steps should be taken when allowing them to teach.

18 Controlling Access to Children

- All instructors and black belts should complete the instructors training program. The instructors training program will elicit information about the applicants past and a self disclosure about any criminal record due to the fact that the ETSDF only allow black belts to be promoted to the black belt status should the police conduct presented upon application in free from any charges.
- Consent should be obtained from the applicant to seek information from the Criminal Records Bureau.

19 Monitoring

In addition to checks, the safeguarding process includes monitoring after the passing of the instructors training program is complete to help instructors and black belts to:

- Analyse their own practice against what is deemed good practice, and to ensure their practice is likely to protect them from false allegations
- Recognise their responsibilities and report any concerns about suspected poor practice and/or abuse
- Respond to concerns expressed by a child
- Work safely and effectively with children

ETSDF requires:

- All instructors and black belts who have access to children to provide an updated police conduct every time they grade.
- All Instructors, black belts child protection officers and committee members to undertake familiar with this policy.
- All instructors and black belts to receive advisory information outlining good/bad practice and informing them what to do if they have concerns about the behaviour of an adult towards a young person
- All black belts should have an up to date first aid qualification
